Traditional 00 Main Fall 2026 Final Exam Schedule

Final exam week will be held December 7-11, 2026. Final exams held synchronously will follow the schedule below to avoid having exam times the same as other classes for a student. Please note that if a class covers more than one time slot, the "majority" slot was used in assigning the exam time.

To assist you in finding your courses, exams were assigned according to the following schedule:

| Make-up Day | Use schedule of day that was missed |

Full-term courses for fall and spring semesters, will meet for all fifteen weeks of the semester. During the fifteenth week of each semester, the meeting schedule will be altered to allow additional time for final examinations. If an instructor chooses not to have a final examination for their course, they may schedule additional lecture, in-class presentations, group work, or other class activity. However, classes are expected to be held during that week regardless of final exam. Instructors may allow individual students with unusual circumstances, such as serious illness, death in the family, or postseason athletic events, to take an examination at another time. Exams will be held in the normal classroom unless other arrangements are made by the faculty member with the Registrar's office.

In the event that a day must be missed due to weather, power outage or other emergency, final exams from that day will be made-up on Friday and will use the schedule from the day that was missed.
